Day 1: Addis Ababa
Upon your arrival at Bole International Airport in Addis Ababa, a warm welcome awaits you by a representative from Campofrio Safaris. Your journey commences with a captivating tour of the diplomatic capital of Africa, starting with a visit to the iconic Holy Trinity Cathedral, built in 1955 to honor Emperor Haile Selassie's 25th anniversary. Subsequently, you will explore the National Museum, housing the renowned Lucy hominid skeleton dating back 3.2 million years. After a delightful lunch, the afternoon unfolds with visits to the Ethnological Museum, once the palace of Haile Selassie, followed by a panoramic view of Addis Ababa from Mountain Entoto. You will retire for the night at a comfortable hotel.

Day 2: Addis Ababa - Arba Minch
Embark on a scenic full-day drive from Addis Ababa to Arba Minch. En route, immerse yourself in archaeological wonders such as Tiya, Adadi Mariyam, or Melka Kunture. Your accommodation for the night will be at a hotel in Arba Minch.

Day 3: Dorze
Following breakfast, continue your journey to Dorze, nestled above Arba Minch. Here, you will encounter the Dorze people renowned for their unique beehive-shaped houses and exquisite cotton weaving. Depending on the day, you may also explore the local market. In the afternoon, relish a boat excursion on Lake Chamo, offering glimpses of the crocodile market and indigenous hippos. Your overnight stay will be at a hotel.

Day 4: Jinka
Drive to Jinka, with enriching stops at Konso,

Tsemay, and Bena villages along the way. If your visit coincides with Thursday, a visit to the vibrant Key Afer market will be included. Conclude the day with a comfortable overnight stay in Jinka.

Day 5: Mago National Park
Embark on a morning drive through Mago National Park to visit a Mursi tribe village, renowned for their distinctive lip and earlobe adornments. In the afternoon, return to Jinka and proceed to Turmi via Dimeka and Key Afer. Your overnight stay awaits you at a hotel in Turmi.

Day 6: Omorate
Embark on a captivating day trip to Omorate to encounter the Dassenech tribe and cross the Omo River in a traditional wooden boat. Return to Turmi for a memorable visit to a local Hamar village, with the possibility of witnessing an authentic traditional coming-of-age ceremony. Enjoy a comfortable overnight stay at a hotel.

Day 7: Arba Minch
Depart Turmi for Arba Minch, with enriching stops at Key Afer and Konso along the way, offering opportunities to explore local markets and cultural sites. Spend the night at a hotel in Arba Minch.

Day 8: Arba Minch
Commence your day with a morning departure from Arba Minch for a scenic full-day drive back to Addis Ababa. Optionally, you may visit the local fish market on the shores of Lake Awassa. Conclude your remarkable journey with an evening transfer to Bole International Airport for your return flight home.
